

To access Web of Science from off-campus, you must first register (create an account) while on campus. To do this, follow these steps:

1. Access Web of Science by going to the Augustana College library website. (For example, on the "Databases A-Z" page.)
2. Click Sign In along the top navigation.
3. Click Register to create a new account. (You will be asked to enter your email address to verify that you don't already have an account.)
4. Fill in the User Registration page.
5. After the username and password you have entered is verified, it will become active.

Keeping your access active:

- In order to keep their access active, users are required to sign in to their account from an IP-authenticated (on-campus) computer or device every six months to verify that they are an authorized user.
