The Coaches

Head Coach, Grey Giovanine

Guiding the Vikings to an historic conference and NCAA "3-peat" in 2006, 2007 and 2008. Coach "G" brings 32 years of college coaching experience to the Augustana Basketball Camps. Along with returning Augustana to National prominence, he has welcomed over 2500 young people to the summer camp program that is recognized for its 'fun and fundamentals' philosophy.

Assistant Coach, Tom Jessee

Former Augustana basketball standout and current assistant coach Tom Jessee prepares to enter into his 25th year of service to the Augustana basketball program. Coach Jessee is a 1991 graduate of Augustana, and was a four year varsity letter winner and team captain during his senior season.

Assistant Coach, Larry Schulte

Larry Schulte joined the Vikings staff in 2006 after an Illinois High School Hall of Fame coaching career that concluded with a successful 11 year run as athletics director and head coach at Rock Island Alleman High School.

Assistant Coach, Dallas Duwa

Dallas Duwa, before coming to coach at Augustana, guided the Pleasant Valley boys' basketball team for 12 seasons. His 2005-06 Spartans won the Mississippi Athletic Conference and went on to take 2nd place at the Iowa Class 4A state tournament. Duwa is formerly president of the Iowa Basketball Coaches Association.

Guest Lecturer, Chips Giovanine

Assisting in the capacity of guest lecturer at the Augustana Basketball Camps this summer will be Illinois High School Hall of Fame Coach Chips Giovanine. Winner of 674 games during 35 years of coaching, he guided teams to the IHSA "Sweet Sixteen" in both Class A (Buda Western) and double AA (LaSalle-Peru) state tournaments.

Augustana College basketball players will also assist coaching all camps.

A unique and popular feature of the camp is the involvement of numerous current Augustana Vikings players on a daily basis.
