About Augustana College

Known for its balance of liberal arts with focus in a major field, collaborative research opportunities, competitive athletic teams and award-winning student activities programs, Augustana College is a selective independent college of the liberal arts and sciences related to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The college enrolls approximately 2,500 men and women of diverse ethnic, religious and social backgrounds, from across the United States and around the world.

Augustana's athletic teams have won more championships than any other school in the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin. The Vikings own a total of 175 total team championships (137 men and 38 women) since the league began in 1946-47. Augustana is currently sixth in the nation in number of CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America) Academic All-Americans produced in all sports with 135 as of June, 2011. During the 1990's the Vikings finished third, trailing only Nebraska and M.I.T.

Home to a Phi Beta Kappa academic honor society chapter since 1949, Augustana grants baccalaureate degrees in more than 60 areas of study. Along with a competitive athletic environment, student-athletes can join one or several of the school's 150 student organizations or take advantage of Augustana's wide variety of opportunities for international study. Augustana has a student-faculty ratio of 11:1, and nearly 90 percent of the faculty hold the Ph.D. or the terminal degree in their field.

The following mission statement guides Augustana's liberal arts curriculum and student programs.

Augustana College, rooted in the liberal arts and sciences and a Lutheran expression of the Christian faith, is committed to offering a challenging education that develops qualities of mind, spirit and body necessary for a rewarding life of leadership and service in a diverse and changing world.

These goals and ideals also are reflected in the mission statement of the athletic department:

The Department of Athletics offers all Augustana College students an opportunity toward the development of the total person. Working in a cooperative and active learning environment and dedicated to imparting a lifelong awareness of health and wellness our department assists students in the acquisition of dynamic skills knowledge and fitness.

We value dignity, respect, diversity, accountability, communication and teamwork: and challenge each participant to achieve a sense of self confidence, pride, team unity, success, and cohesiveness through competitive sport. Our programs support the mission of Augustana College by cultivating the individual in all facets of life within and without the competitive arena.

2 - Augustana Vikings

Experience and talent points to great things for Vikings in 2011

Scott Mejia has been the head women's soccer coach at Augustana since 2001. In that 10 year stretch his teams have fashioned an impressive 137-49-5 record and participated in the NCAA Division III national tournament four times (2005, 06, 09, 10). With that kind of success under his belt, Mejia eagerly anticipates the opening of the 2011 season as his team returns all 11 starters from a unit that went 13-2-5 in 2010.

"I would say that we are cautiously optimistic," said Mejia, who was also the men's coach at Augustana from 2001-06 and posted a record of 68-37-6 during that time frame. "All the pieces are in place for us to be very good. We believe it is going to come down to a desire to be great. Will we be willing to do the little things that will set us apart?"

A quick check of the year-by-year records would take one back to 2003 to find the last time the Vikings lost at least five matches in a single season. Over the last two years they have compiled an outstanding 33-4-6 record overall and an 11-1-2 mark in the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin. Still, Mejia acknowledges that the five ties suffered last year serve as a reminder to his team that there is some unfinished business in 2011.

"It is true that we only lost twice last year (4-1 at Wheaton late in the regular season and 2-1 to Carleton in the first round of the NCAA tournament)," said Mejia, who has been the CCIW's "Coach of the Year" on both the men's and women's side of the ledger. "Our kids know, however, that the five ties didn't have to happen if we had taken care of the little things."

That will be the focus this year and with all 11 starters returning, the expectations around the Augustana program are high. One of the points of emphasis this year will be goal production. A year ago, the Vikings scored 48 goals in 20 matches, an average of 2.4 per game. Mejia thinks that number could have been higher.

"There is no question that goal production needs to improve," said Mejia. "Our players know that and we will work at making that a priority. It is not just a matter of scoring more goals but of converting on opportunities at crucial times in tight matches."

One player who could go a long way in increasing that production is junior Taylor Moesle (Carl Sandburg HS, Orland Park, Ill.). Moesle was a first team NCAA Division III All-American selection a year ago after she led the team in scoring with 12 goals and four assists for a total of 28 points. She was also a first team all-conference selection. Moesle is tied for 10th on the school's all-time list for career goals scored with 21 and the 12 goals and 28 points from a year ago were both ninth best on Augustana's single season list.

She will be joined in the midfield by seniors Erin Coulson (Neuqua Valley HS, Naperville, Ill. — now resides in Hermosa Beach, Calif.), Ashley Higuchi (Smoky Hill HS, Aurora, Colo.), Caitlin Winkelman (St. Charles North HS, St. Charles, Ill.) and junior Kirsten Boesen (Normal West HS, Gibson City, Ill.). Winkelman, Higuchi and Boesen were all second team all-conference selections a year ago.

Coulson scored six goals and tallied three assists in 2010 for 15 total points. She is seventh on the school's career goals scored list with 25 and 10th in total points with 56. Higuchi had six goals and four assists last year and her 11 career assists rank her ninth on the all-time list. Winkelman had four goals and three assists for 11 total points and she is tied for 10th on the all-time list in terms of goals scored with 21. Boesen, a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection last year, is more of a defensive midfielder.

Senior Jenna Doyle (Regis Jesuit HS, Parker, Colo.) and junior Morgan Olsen (Downers Grove North HS, Woodridge, Ill.) will see time in the midfield as could senior Holly Timm (Northglenn HS, Denver, Colo.).

Senior Jessica Dodds (Linn-Mar HS, Marion, Iowa) is the returning starter at the forward position. She scored five goals and had two assists in 2010 and as a freshman she led the team in goals scored with 11 in the 2008 season. She will get competition from sophomores Briana Clark (Nazareth Academy, LaGrange, Ill.) and Allison Frickman (Loveland HS, Loveland, Colo.) and freshman Hannah Klancic (Waubonsie Valley HS, Aurora, Ill.).

Defense has long been a consistent staple of Augustana teams under Mejia's tutelage. That shouldn't change in 2011 and the backfield quartet of seniors Megan Mummert (Crawfordsville HS, Crawfordsville, Ind.), Mary Pat Holtrop (St. Charles North HS, St. Charles, Ill.) and Kelly Johnson (Homewood-Flossmoor HS, Flossmoor, Ill.) and sophomore Margaret Hoscheit (St. Charles East HS, St. Charles, Ill.) returns intact. A year ago the Vikings only allowed a total of 11 goals in 20 matches and 1915 minutes played for a goals-against-average of 0.52. Augustana posted 14 shutouts, including a streak of eight straight to start the season. Mummert was a first team all-conference and all-region selection.

Junior Courtney Linn (Pleasant Valley HS, Bettendorf, Iowa) and sophomores Bridget Shrigley (Wheaton-Warrenville South HS, Wheaton, Ill.) and Merrill Clayton (Legacy HS, Westminster, Colo.) will all be pressing for playing time.

Senior Kayla Radloff (West Chicago HS, West Chicago, Ill.) was an All-American as a sophomore and last year was all-conference and all-region. She gave up 11 goals in 20 matches and 1,774 minutes for a goals-against-average of 0.56. Her backup will be junior Bridget McDermott (Prospect HS, Mt. Prospect, Ill.).

The Vikings benefitted greatly from a trip to Europe this past June and Mejia thinks the lessons learned will pay dividends this season.

"I think we grew quite a bit during our trip," he said. "We know exactly what we need to work on and this is such an experienced and veteran group that they don't need to be told twice."

Although the team is back nearly intact from last year, there will be one huge change at home games in 2011. Augustana will open up the newly constructed Thorson-Lucken Field with the September 1 home opener against Wartburg. The facility, which has synthetic turf, lights and seating for 800, occupies the ground just South of the PepsiCo Recreation Center where the Vikings played until the 2002 season when they moved to Ericson Field.

"The new field has everybody excited," said Mejia. "Our players are anxious to get on it and it will certainly help in recruiting."

HEAD COACH SCOTT MEJIA

Scott Mejia begins his 11th year at Augustana in the fall of 2011 and this will be his fifth as the head women's soccer coach only. Mejia was the head coach of both the men's and women's programs starting in March of 2001, but with the 2007 hiring of Brenton Joseph to lead the men's program, Mejia was freed up to concentrate solely on the women's team. His 2007 team finished 13-4-1 overall and 5-2 in CCIW play, taking third in the league and in 2008 the Vikings went 15-4 overall and were once again 5-2 in the conference.

That set the stage for a fantastic 2009 season that saw Mejia lead his team to a school record 20-2-1. Along the way Augustana won its first ever CCIW women's soccer title with a perfect 7-0 mark in league play. The Vikings also claimed the CCIW tournament with a 1-0 win over Illinois Wesleyan and advanced to the "Sweet Sixteen" of the NCAA Division III national tournament before the season ended with a 2-1 loss to Calvin in the sectional tournament. Mejia was named CCIW "Coach of the Year" and was also tabbed as the NCAA Division III Central Region "Coach of the Year" by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

In 2010 the Vikings went 13-2-5 overall and 4-1-2 in the CCIW, good for third place in the league. Augustana also made the NCAA tournament for the second consecutive season and the fourth time in Mejia's tenure. The Vikings lost to Carleton in the first round by a score of 2-1 in overtime.

Mejia came to Augustana after being the head coach of both the men and women at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wisconsin. He had the task of replacing a pair of head coaches who ended their Augustana careers as the winningest coaches in their respective sports. Krisan Steiger was the only women's coach in school history and she compiled a record of 78-63-10 from 1993 through 2000. Bob Estabrook was 82-45-10 from 1994-2000 as the men's coach.

In 10 seasons he has made his mark on the Vikings soccer program, compiling a record of 68-37-6 with the men and 137-49-15 with the women. He is the winningest women's soccer coach at Augustana. The Viking men were 22-14-3 in the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin during that time frame, including a mark of 10-1-1 in a two year span of 2002 and 2003. In 2002 the Vikings won the first ever CCIW men's soccer title in school history when they earned a co-championship with Wheaton. The Augustana women have been terrific as well, compiling a 45-19-2 record in league play under Mejia.

It did not take long for Mejia to establish himself at Augustana as he led the men's team to an 11-5-2 overall record and a 2-2-2 mark in the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin in 2001, his first year. Meanwhile the women were 10-10 overall and 3-4 in the CCIW in 2001 and goalkeeper Carla Wagner was selected to the 2001 Verizon Academic All-American team.

The 2002 season was even better as his men's team went 16-3-1 overall and 5-0-1 in the CCIW, winning the school's first ever league title in men's soccer. Jason Ross led NCAA Division III in scoring with 30 goals in 20 games and Mejia was named the CCIW's "Coach of the Year". The women's team was 13-8 overall and 4-3 in the CCIW, good enough for fourth place in the league.

In 2003 the men went 13-6-1 overall and 5-1 in the CCIW, placing second in both the regular season and in the conference tournament. The women were 11-7-3 overall and 4-2-1 in the league, finishing fourth in the regular season but taking second in the CCIW tournament. The 2004 season saw the men put up a 9-7-1 record overall and 3-4 in the CCIW while the women went 12-5-2 and 3-2-2.

During 2005, the men again were 9-7-1 overall and 3-4 in the conference while the women set a new school record for victories in a single season, going 15-4-1 in 2005 and earning a trip to the NCAA Division III national tournament. The Vikings played to a 0-0 tie with Wisconsin-Eau Claire in the first round but were eliminated on penalty kicks.

In 2006 the men finished 10-9-0 and advanced to the conference championship match while the women tied the school record for wins in a single season, going 15-3-3 and earning a second straight trip to the NCAA Division III national tournament. The Vikings broke through with a 2-1 victory over Grinnell in the first round, the first tournament win in school history for the women's soccer program. Augustana fell to Wisconsin-Eau Claire in the second round of postseason play. Mejia's memorable season with the women earned him "Coach of the Year" honors in the CCIW. He has never suffered a losing season at Augustana with either the men or the women's teams.

Mejia was selected as the "Coach of the Year" in women's soccer in the Lake Michigan Conference after the 2000 season when he led Lakeland to a 12-9-1 overall record and an 8-3-1 mark in the league. The year before that (1999) the Muskies set a school record for victories in a single season with 13 and they finished eighth in NCAA Division III in scoring offense. His two year record at Lakeland was 25-17-1 with the women and his men's teams were 11-27-2. Prior to taking the head coaching position at Lakeland, Mejia was the assistant coach at Edgewood College in Madison, Wisconsin from 1996-99. He has also coached at various clubs around the Milwaukee and Madison area.

He graduated from Edgewood in 1997 with a 3.75 grade point average and a Bachelor of Science degree in English. While at Edgewood he was a three time all-conference performer and was the team MVP in 1993, the offensive MVP in 1994 and the defensive MVP in 1995. As a junior in 1994 he was an all Great Lakes Regional selection and twice was the "Player of the Week". During his senior season he was named an NSCAA/Umbro All-Midwest selection. Twice he served as team captain.

In April of 2004 he joined a select group of coaches who have earned the National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation Coaching School when he passed the course in Carson, California. Only 1,500 coaches nationwide have earned an "A" license, including just 33 in Illinois and 10 in Iowa. He received his National "B" License in 2000 after gaining his "C" License in 1998. Scott and his wife Jennifer are the parents of three boys, Dylan (February 2004), Braeden (August 2006) and Ethan (October 2009). The family resides in Davenport, Iowa.

The College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin

Now in its 66th year, the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin (CCIW) enjoys a reputation as the "Best Small-College Conference in the Nation." The league was formed with nine charter members (Augustana, Carthage, Elmhurst, Illinois College, Illinois Wesleyan, Lake Forest, Millikin, North Central and Wheaton) on April 26, 1946 in Jacksonville, Illinois. Competition opened in the 1946-47 academic year as the College Conference of Illinois.

Carthage left the conference in 1952 but returned in 1961. In 1967 the name was changed to the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin to recognize Carthage, which had moved to Kenosha, Wisconsin from Carthage, Illinois in 1962, and Carroll, which entered the league in 1955.

As is often the case with athletic conferences, CCIW membership has experienced some changes since the league's inception. After Carthage left in 1952, Illinois College withdrew the following year. Elmhurst and Wheaton left following the 1959-60 academic year. Wheaton rejoined for all sports but football in 1967 and then for football in 1970. Elmhurst rejoined in the fall of 1967 for all sports but football and for football in the 1968 season. Carroll joined officially with the 1955 spring sports seasons. Carthage returned in 1961 and North Park entered the following fall. Lake Forest dropped out at the end of the 1962-63 year. The last change in CCIW membership came following the 1991-92 season when Carroll withdrew.

Now eight members strong, the CCIW continues its tradition of athletic and academic excellence. The league sanctioned women's sports for the first time in the 1986-87 school year and Augustana participated in the first ever women's competition. That was on September 14, 1986 when the Vikings met North Central in a volleyball match that was held at Elmhurst College.

The College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin sanctions 21 sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor track & field, men's and women's outdoor track & field, volleyball and wrestling.

Augustana will welcome its 11th women's varsity sport, lacrosse, for the 2011-12 season. Augustana will also be welcoming men's lacrosse as its 12th men's varsity sport for the 2012-13 season. Neither women's nor men's lacrosse is currently a CCIW sport.

Augustana owns more CCIW team championships than any other school in the league with 175 total. Of those 175, the men have won 137 and 38 belong to the women.

Football was the first sport contested in the CCIW when the league was formed in 1946. Augustana has won more games (309) and championships (21) than any team in the CCIW during the first 65 years of existence. Not only have the Vikings won 21 league titles, but they have also finished second 11 times. Since 1981 the Blue & Gold own at least a share of 17 of the last 29 championships.
